

Save Sat. April 19 for EARTHFEST 2008!

A community celebration of the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part

12 NOON–5 PM

Children's Activities

🌱 Junk sculptures & musical instruments 🌱 Packaging choices game 🌱
Face painting 🌱 Earth's family tree mural 🌱 Pledge cards for the earth 🌱 Seed planting 🌱 Recycling sorting game 🌱 Sock puppets 🌱 Ecological choices quiz 🌱 Organic apple taste test 🌱 Story area

Small Group Discussions on topics such as 🌱 Developing Sustainability 🌱 Living with Solar 🌱

The Gleaning and Food Recovery Projects 🌱 The True Cost of Food 🌱 and more

Information about area Environmental Organizations

Silent Auction 🌱 Bid on a variety of environmentally-friendly products

Fair Trade Coffee 🌱 Cocoa 🌱 Chocolate available for purchase

7-9 PM

Folk Concert featuring

🌱 Dan Berggren 🌱 David Sturdevant 🌱 Carmen & Dick Gilman 🌱 Bill Moran 🌱
and the Spirit Lake String Band: Cheryl Ritch 🌱 Jim Cunningham 🌱 Bonnie & Bill White

All activities are FREE and open to the public

Refreshments will be served both afternoon and evening

At the Fredonia Grange Hall, 58 W. Main Street

Presented by the

Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Northern Chautauqua

www.uucnc.org

679-7944

EARTHFEST 2008 is our congregation's 25th anniversary gift to the larger community — a community information fair and celebration of our natural environment — our relationship to it and our responsibility for it. We hope to see you there!